Asparagus

Suzan Pitt | 1976 | 18 min |

A faceless female character wanders through erotic, metaphorical worlds, reflecting upon the inner life of the woman artist and the experience of dreams.

Emergence of Eunice

Emily Hubley | 1980 | 6 min |

A young woman who feels isolated within an uncaring home situation, confides her thoughts and intentions to a notepad in successive three-step-plans.

The Hat

Michèle Cournoyer | 1999 | 6 min |

A dancer's memories of trauma come flooding back as she performs for a voyeuristic audience. Her body transforms and becomes the stage on which her trauma is re-lived.

Quasi at the Quackadero

Sally Cruikshank | 1975 | 10 min

Quasi and Anita spend the day at a mind- and time-bending amusement park together with their pet robot Rollo.

A La Votre

Monique Renault | 1973 | 2 min |

A big woman and a little superman are engaged in an erotic play. Finally she dissolves him as an effervescent tablet in a glass of water.

Bun in the Oven

Alys Scott Hawkins | 1999 | 3 min |

This animated short documentary deals with the changing forms and feelings of the body through pregnancy and childbirth.

Desire Pie

Lisa Crafts | 1976 | 5 min |

A couple is aided by additional lips, tongues, imaginings, and positions, featuring points of view rarely seen. Very graphic.

Tub Film

Mary Beams | 1972 | 2 min |

A woman enters a bathtub, rubs her limbs clean and hums a song. When her cat pulls the plug, she dissolves down the drain, humming, still.
